

Mashtal

Sub-heading: Poverty leads to child labour

Topic Sentence: It is now a widely accepted fact that poverty proves to be a leading cause of ~~towards~~ child labour.

Explanatory Sentence: With leading poverty in our society, the ultimate option which becomes available for poor households is to send their children for earning a wage.

Supporting point: Moreover, there are certain circumstances where both parents' and guardian's incomes are so low to keep up with necessities of life, therefore, children have to work to add ~~extra weight~~ to the income.

Example: According to Grace Abbot, "Child labour and poverty who?

Date:

Day: M T W T F S

are inevitably bound together and if you continue to use the labour of children as the treatment for the social disease of poverty, you will have both poverty and child labour ^{at} to the end of time."

Concluding Sentence: Hence, poverty proves to be a leading factor ~~of~~ child labour.