A hungry lion slipped out of the forest into a barnyard one evening. When he saw a plump donkey, his mouth began to water, but just as he was ready to jump on the donkey, a rooster crowed. He was frightened and so turned away into the forest again. "Hey! Look at that cowardly lion," the donkey brayed to the rooster, "I am going to chase him." And the donkey ran after the lion. "Wait!" the rooster shouted, "you don't know that." ^B but it was too late. The lion had turned and killed the donkey. "Ah! My poor, stupid friend," the rooster said, as he watched the lion eating the donkey, "The lion was not afraid of you but of my crowing."

Translation

Pakistan is determined for peace in Afghanistan because a peaceful Afghanistan is important for Pakistan. Historically, Pakistan and Afghanistan are neighbouring Islamic states who are connected historically, culturally and linguistically with each other. Their relations are inseparable. Both countries are dependent on each other and can not exist separately. Since inception, Pakistan's opinion is to solve Afghan issue through political solution which is also endorsed by China. China in this context has argued that peaceful negotiations under Afghan leadership is the only solution to Afghan crisis. Pakistan and China will play their role in solving Afghan crisis for their strategic partnership.
