Answer 2:

The essence of moral equivalence is that while achieving the objectives of war, the innocent civilians and children should not be injured and killed. Just like in Afghanistan and Iraq, on the name of security issues, the hyper-power has harmed millions of innocent civilians. This act was immoral and was against the moral equivalence of war.

Countries occupied and under the tutelage power have no peace because these hyperpowers have transformed these countries to an insecure place for civilians as well as ^{for} development. There is threats to life of everyone especially innocent citizens. People in rural areas of these countries do not receive any aid which create risks of enormous crisis.

Answer 4:

Yes, Europe and US are at cross purposes over the concept of war. Because America wants to assert its dominance as superpower and also to secure its objectives in the form of war. On the other hand, Europeans i.e Germany and France, have opposite objectives and that's why they refused to become part of wise counselling.
