

Nuclear Challenge To World Peace During 21st Century

Topic Sentence: In this day and age, achieving world peace is a distant dream owing to the grim challenge posed by the ~~presence~~ of nuclear weapons.

Reasoning / Explanatory Sentence: Keeping in view the pace at which world is becoming more and more connected and a subsequent emergence of sub-state actors that work as anti force to world peace theories and treaties, ~~it's~~ <sup>it's</sup> difficult to say ~~for~~ how long world would be able to ~~resist~~ <sup>keep</sup> nuclear proliferation ~~from~~ <sup>from</sup> unsafe hands.

Supporting Point: In 21st century, as the world arena has broadened and states have shifted to more responsible behaviours, there has been a sharp rise in inequalities too. These inequalities foster such groups that desperately want to get their hands on nuclear weapons. <sup>Why?</sup>

not relevant to sub state actors

Example: Knowing and apprehending the perils of a nuclear world, the leaders ~~since~~ <sup>since</sup> decades have been chalking out policies and treaties to block nuclear weapon proliferation or abolish them completely. A famous quote, that sums up the entire debate, goes as:-
"The weapons of war must be abolished before they abolish us". (President John F. Kennedy, 1961)

Concluding Sentence: Therefore, the world peace is ~~at~~ <sup>at</sup> a grave ~~risk~~ <sup>risk</sup> with the presence of nuclear weapons and with the rapidly changing dynamics of today's world, a "hair trigger" can result in ~~an~~ <sup>an</sup> unimaginable catastrophe.

hand-writing much

not relevant

is about sub-state actors only? sentence nuclear Reasoning