The Devilness of Busyness.

indirect start start with a an the

The Busy people have brought more damage to the world than people who do nothing. The devil, being the busiest creature; rejects laziness and ~~is annoyed on~~ time wasting. Everybody must be doing something in the devil's world. It is <sup>the</sup> busyness that has harmed the world, and not laziness. Things would have been better in the year 1914, if all higher authorities just enjoyed <sup>themselves</sup> and did nothing. But, it was not the case, as they had to do something ~~well~~. Also, if all the leaders instead of going to Versailles, to maintain peace would have just taken a day off, and enjoyed themselves before the conference; it would have been better. Ideally, it would be beneficial, if laziness is not considered a crime. Nothing is achieved from conferences as it does not discuss anything substantial. All leaders could have been in a better position, if they focused ~~at~~ on their mental health.
