

The need to produce human beings with trained morally sensitive intelligence is essentially a challenge to educators and educational institutions. Traditionally, the realm of social morality was left to religion and the churches as guardians or custodians. But their failure to fulfill this responsibility and their yielding to the seductive lures of the men of wealth and! pomp and power and documented by the history of the last two thousand years and have now resulted in the irrelevant "God Is Dead" theological rhetoric The more pragmatic men of power have had no time or inclination to deal with the fundamental problems of social morality. - them simplistic Machiavellianism must remain the guiding principle of their decisions-power is morality, morality is power. This oversimplification increases the chances of nuclear devastation. We must therefore hope that educators and educational institutions have the capacity, the commitment and the time to instill moral sensitivity as an integral part of the complex pattern of function human intelligence. Some way must be found in the training of human beings to give them the assurance to love, the security to be kind. and the integrity required for a functional empathy.

main idea is picked and discussed but the precise misses the basic theme of the main passage need improvement in expression of the precise content title is not good be short and to the point in content over all average and need improvement 6/20

Precis

~~Top Title:~~ The Necessity of ~~Inculcating~~ social Morality

don't start like these direct words use a an the for the start

Teaching morality to humans is a difficult task for educational institutions. In ^{the} past, the task of instilling morality ~~was~~ left for religious institutions. However, they ~~were~~ indulged in worldly pleasures and failed to fulfill their duty. The men with power are much addicted to power that they have no time to eradicate the issues of morality. Educational institutions must ~~have~~ to play their effective role in instilling morality by their amicable policies.

rephrase this sentence

Total words: 193

Summarized words: 71