

Topic: Does poverty leads to crimes?

Make sure content is relevant to topic

1. Introduction
2. Crunch Paragraph
3. Poverty leads to crimes (Thesis)
  - a. Fulfilling basic needs of life
  - b. Poor are easy prey of criminals
  - c. Greed of money → not related to poverty
  - d. Poor face difficulty to get a job and start business
  - e. Poor being less educated, so unaware of the difference between right and wrong

4. Poverty doesnot lead to crimes (Anti thesis)
  - a. If poor are spiritually and morally strong, not involved in crimes → write grammatically correct and complete heading
  - b. If prefer right over wrong then not influenced
  - c. Rich people are more greedy than poor people
  - d. If they<sup>who?</sup> work hard, they will find job
  - e. Poor are more educated than rich

↳ Subjective opinion

5. Poverty has more possibility of giving rise to crimes (Synthesis)
  - a. They<sup>who?</sup> can compromise their spiritual and moral values for meeting needs of life
  - b. Criminals offer high/large amount of money to poor people
  - c. Poor are avaricious due to financial money crisis
  - d. Poor try to find short-cuts for earning money
  - e. Lack of resources for getting education

6. Conclusion

To encourage healthy eating, higher taxes should be imposed on junk food and soft drinks

Outline

- 1. Introduction
- 2. Crunch Paragraph

3. For encouraging healthy food, imposition of high tax is not a good solution (Thesis)

- a. People who are <sup>addicted to</sup> eating junk food and soft drinks will not give up
- b. It will affect market of junk food and soft <sup>drink</sup>
- c. No surety that people will divert towards healthy eating

d. If <sup>per</sup> income of people also increases <sup>it will have</sup> more than taxes then <sup>as</sup> no effect on junk food consumption

e. People will find alternative and purchase junk food and soft drinks of low quality at low prices

4. Imposition of high taxes will divert people towards healthy eating (Antithesis)

a. Due to high taxes, people will buy less junk food and soft drinks

b. Higher taxes leads to increase in government <sup>revenue</sup>

c. People will definitely <sup>spelling</sup> reduce consumption <sup>→ generic</sup>

d. People having low income will give up junk food and soft drinks usage

e. <sup>Similar to point of</sup> They <sup>who?</sup> prefer health over junk food and soft drinks and not purchase of low quality <sup>what is the significance of this extra heading? So?</sup>

5. <sup>who?</sup> Less chances of encouraging healthy food

a. They cannot compromise on their habits

b. Demand will decrease to some extent

c. They will prepare junk foods at home irrelevant

- d. High income will neutralize high taxes
- c. They do for escaping of high taxes
- s. Conclusion

from