

Mashaal

27/08/2023

→ weak grammar
→ make writing more legible

Batch: 341

Name: Orooba

ACADEMIC PARAGRAPH STRUCTURE

(Sub-heading: Demand for New Province)

Topic Sentence	There has been always a recurring demand for new provinces.	← Synonyms
Explanatory or Reasoning sentence	Historically, there is a persistent demand for new provinces in Pakistan on different grounds.	←
Supporting Point (1)	After At the time of partition of Punjab, Bahawalpur and Sarkhisi provinces were demande made	← demands
Example (1)	On 1940s, Karachi, Hyderabad and the in between area were demanded to be a new province named Punjab. This province was demanded by order	← grammatically wrong structure
SP 2 (optional)	Speakers after the name of Punjab. After R amendment when the name of NWFP was changed into KP, was	← Khyber Pak...
Ex 2 (to be written if SP2 is given)	Hazara division was ignored. which then resulted in the demand for new province of Hazara.
Concluding Sentence	So there is always a demand for new province. Since the day of partition, people are eagerly on new provinces to be formed .	← ?

(No. of words _____)