Title: Cinematic Contributions of Nizar Hassan

Nizar Hassan <sup>was</sup> is a ~~veteran~~ Palestinian filmmaker. His first cinematic production, Independence, stimulates the interest of his Palestinian fellows by challenging the Israeli concept of 'independence' that he ridicules to be based on the theft of people's homeland. In the backdrop of Israel's continuous annexation of Palestine, Nizar Hassan produced another documentary ~~itled as~~ <sup>ed</sup> My grandfather's Path. The film warns against falling into the trap of ~~underhand~~ ~~tactics~~ of Zionist settler colonialists as one may become like one's enemy. In doing so, one may let go of the ideals that define his goals. For the author, Palestinian artforms ~~like~~ poetry, fiction, drama have saved him from the enemy's trap by remaining uninfluenced from the cruel politics. My grandfather's Path also foregrounds the Palestinian perspective against

Title: Manto - A Realist writer

Manto was targetted by the social hypocrisy incorrect interpretation based on mental skewedness and piety claims.

He was legally charged to prove the moral authenticity of his writings. However, he remained firm in portraying the dark realities of life. He intended to explain the myths surrounding sex realistically that foregrounds his concern<sup>s</sup> for socially marginalized classes.
Manto considers ed man as a 'human being' who ~~is~~ capable of both virtue and vice ~~both~~. His realist ~~tendencies made him abhor the human hypocrisy~~ ~~at various levels in the society~~. Without glorifying vulgarity, he reflects the ed ~~lived~~ passions of his readers and established a connection with them.
