

Masha)

(1)

Topic: Chose your friends wisely but chose your enemies even more carefully.

Outline

1. Introduction:

Thesis statement: Man is a social animal that takes decisions to make some ~~people~~ friends.

People share their values, weaknesses

and important events with these chosen friends.

Every one needs to be careful in making friends, because the friend of today can be your worst enemy by tomorrow.

(2) Importance of choosing the people surrounding you carefully.

(3) Importance of wise decision in choosing the closest friends.

i → Moral development in the company of a good friend.

ii → Need of a good friend in hard times.

iii → A good friend shows the right path.

iv → Building of a good social image in the company of potential friends.

(4) → Irrelevant
Importance of having no enemies.

(5) Need of wise decisions in making the country's or Nations' friends and enemies.

ignored altogether
thesis st.

who

in

- (6) Your closest friends can be your potential enemies tomorrow.
- (7) Negative Impacts of potential enemies
- i → Emotional distress, anxiety and stress in the company of bad enemies.
  - ii → Distraction from your goals and dreams.
  - iii → Danger of physical harm.
  - iv → loss to a person's business.
- (8) Consequences of Potential enemies in Country's or State's Foreign Relations.
- i → Interference in country's internal affairs.
  - ii → Isolation in international level.
  - iii → Trade sanctions: Economic loss.
  - iv → cyber Attacks in modern world.
- (9) Conclusion:

→ Most part of outline
is not related to topic → Attempt a non-abstract
topic first