

Batch: 54

Name: AMINA ZAHEER

ACADEMIC PARAGRAPH STRUCTURE

(Sub-heading: Nuclear challenge to world peace during the 21st century.)

Topic Sentence	The development and proliferation of nuclear technology has posed several challenges to world peace during the 21 st century.
Explanatory or Reasoning sentence	A constant fear of nuclear terrorism and the potential risks of nuclear accidents are the two most important foci of the concern today.
Supporting Point (1)	Nuclear power plants have been recognized as liable targets for terrorist attacks.
Example (1)	According to 9/11 Commission Report, the perpetrators had initially considered targeting a nuclear power plant to create a massive release of radioactivity (dqap.org, Nuclear Terrorism, September 2021).
SP 2 (optional)	Nuclear accidents can result in the release of deadly fission products.
Ex 2 (to be written if SP2 is given)	The Fukushima nuclear accident in Japan proved to be the worst man-made engineering disaster in all of human history, outside of war (Stevan Magee, Health Forensics, 2014).
Concluding Sentence	This highlights how nuclear technology offers significant challenges to world peace today.

(No. of words 125)