

Rafya Ikram

Brain Drain in Pakistan: A Temporary advantage to a limitless loss.

1- Introduction

Thesis statement:

Pakistan has highly intellectual and talented people. But the ongoing crisis in country led to seek better opportunities in other countries for a stable lifestyle which in return damages the forthcoming youth future.

2- Groundzero of Brain Drain in Pakistan

(a) Economic exploitation in Pakistan.

(b) Lack of resources and research opportunities.

(c) Disrespect of Professional people

(d) Non-Merit based recruitment to different posts in institutes.

(e) Better learning and earning opportunities in other countries.

(3) Temporary advantage of Brain Drain

- (a) Earning of good and ample amount.
- (b) Better excellent opportunities.
- (c) Good reputes of other countries in world.
- (d) Appreciated by international organizations.

(4) Limitless loss due to Brain Drain

- (a) Upcoming generation will follow same culture.
- (b) No role models for existing youth.
- (c) Shaping of youth will not be as good as before.
- (d) Country cannot progress without such intellectual people.

(5) Tackling issue of Brain Drain in Pakistan

- (a) Good economical packages leading to Excel.
- (b) Appreciation of efforts of professionals, for inst.
- (c) Economic stability of Pakistan.
- (d) Improvement of infrastructure of institutes in Pakistan.

6 - Conclusion.