

Humanitarian institutions and human rights

Outline

1- Introduction

Thesis statement: No doubt, global humanitarian institutions have a great concern to human rights. These reduce food insecurity, maintain peace, protect children rights etc at global stage. However, some strategies will further ensure strong role of global humanitarian institutions to protect human rights.

2- Understanding the notion of global humanitarian institutions

3- Manifestation of global humanitarian institutions

- a) The World Food Programme (WFP) for global food supply
- b) The United Nations for peace-keeping mission
- c) The World Health Organization (WHO) (protecting human health)
- d) The International Court of Justice to protect human rights from violation
- e) The United Nations International Children's Emergency Fund (UNICEF) for children rights
- f) The United Nations Human Rights Council (UNHRC) serving as a platform of Human Rights

4- Role of global humanitarian institutions regarding human rights

- a) Supplement the food and reduction of food insecurity in the world
- b) Maintenance of peace at global stage
- c) Protection of human health by effective healthcare medicines
- d) Free and fair justice securing human rights
- e) Highlighting safety of children's rights globally
- f) Minority rights protection throughout the world
- g) Strengthening gender equality in all spheres of life

5- Methodologies to guard human rights by global humanitarian institutions

- a) Strengthen global humanitarian institutions
- b) Engage in neutral affairs at global forum
- c) Avoid unilateral aims at creating hegemony
- d) Respect humanity without any discrimination and rivalry

6- Conclusion