

These
Precis 2011

Topic: Different Perspectives of unhappiness

There are many psychological causes of unhappiness. The one cause is the deprivation of satisfaction in man's youth. Such unhappy man has stored for that particular satisfaction throughout in his life. Another cause of unhappiness contains distraction from reality. Such a man get has got pleasure by taking drugs. Although an unhappy man can attain happiness but intoxicated man ~~less~~ hope has ~~to~~ lost hope. Similarly some unhappy men feel proud of their unhappiness. As these men acknowledge their unhappiness and admit that there is nothing left to live. These people consider their attitude rational. The pride of such people is suspicious for society because society perceive that unhappiness can not be enjoyed.

Precis words = 109
Total words = 390

Comprehension 2019

Ans 1:- The weird biological characteristics of strange creature lead someone to believe that this passage is from a science fiction story. The wrinkled snout in the air, lipless basin, V-shaped mouth, pointed upper lip, absence of brow ridges, absence of a chin, fungicide in the oily brown skin and disturbed breathing; of all these characteristics are anomalous about anatomy and morphology of particular creature described in the passage. So, abnormality of described creature in the passage shows that this passage is from a science fiction.

Ans 2: The crowd was behaving in sensible manner. They were eager to know what was inside the pit? The crowd of two to three hundred people were pushing one another and passing slang comments about creature inside pit. Hence, people were anxious about the creature and eagerly behaving

Ans 3: The mood of the crowd altered after seeing the creature inside in the pit. It was horrible and people got frightened. They left the place at once and their mood changed. Hence, discovery of horrible creature upon crowd altered their mood.

Ans 4: The narrator's initial reaction to the "Thing" was fearful. He was astonished and fixed his eyes upon the cylinder. Moreover, everybody left the place and narrator found himself alone and frightened at the same time. Hence, narrator's initial reaction to the "thing" was mixture of astonishment and fearful.

Ans 5: The writer felt disgusted because of strange, horrible and weird creature found in the pit. The writer was surrounded by ungodly terror by seeing huge monster having pointed upper lip, v-shaped mouth, gurgal skin and disc like eyes. All these strange characteristics made writer disgusted.

Comprehension 2018

Ans 1: According to author machines have become ~~men's~~ ^{men's} masters instead of making ~~men~~ ^{thus} servants because men are too dependent on machines. Moreover men spend most of their time ~~in~~ looking after and waiting upon machines. So, machines become men's masters instead of their servants.

Ans 2: According to author use of machines has brought ~~us~~ ~~on~~ more leisure and more energy for man but this has been a curse rather than a blessing because man do not spend his time and energy to make things beautiful. Unfortunately he indulged ~~himself~~ ~~his~~ in making more machines rather than being civilized man, Hence the more ~~leisure~~ leisure and more energy for man brought by machines has been a curse rather than a blessing.

Ans 3: one may agree with the author's views about civilization which means making and linking beautiful things. Civilization also means that one think freely, live rightly and maintain justice equally between two people. Hence, civilization means to make things beautiful, to think freely, to live rightly and to maintain justice.

Ans 4: "Making more beautiful things" means to explore universe, to remove quarrels between nations and to eradicate poverty. Here is the list of beautiful things:

- (i) Poverty Eradication
- (ii) Justice maintenance
- (iii) Universe Exploration
- (iv) unbiased and logical thinking

Hence, thing can make beautiful by poverty eradication, justice maintenance, universe exploration and logical thinking.

Ans 5: poverty can be prevent in the world by doing justice, making things beautiful and living without fear. Moreover poverty eradication can be achieved by fair and just treatment with all sectors of society. So, one can eradicate poverty to create a ~~society~~ fearless and Just society.