

If women are not protected socially, can legal actions protect them.

1. Introduction

2. Crunch Paragraph

3. Legal actions protect women even if they are not protected socially.

a. Compulsory education legislation compels parents to educate girls

b. Anti-domestic violence provides shield cover to women

c. Equal pay act encourages women for work

d. Making dowry a <sup>legal</sup> crime - safeguards women

e. Anti-harassment laws encourage women to speak up against harassment

4. If women are not protected socially then legal actions could not protect them.

a. Even if education is compulsory, people do not follow laws due to more importance to cultural norms

b. Women hide domestic violence due to family fear

c. Working women earn for their family and unable to spend on herself

d. Groom considers dowry his right; no fear of law violation

e. Despite harassment laws, women do not speak for protecting her respect

5. Although if women are not protected socially, <sup>then</sup> even legal actions provide them protection.

a. People may fear from law violation <sup>punishment</sup> more than norms violation punishment

b. Violates may bear penalty in case of violation so encourage women to speak up

c. Enables women to spend herself and family due to handsome wages

- d. Relieves brides parent's burden and overthrow groom demand due to fear of imprisonment and fine
- e. Implementing Anti-harassment law by hiding women identity encourage her to join Metroo campaign

6. Conclusion