Swarup: Well, you can't get a degree if you don't pass the examination; and I have set my heart on being a graduate.

Jack: And pray what good will graduation do you? You may get a clerkship in a government office; but that's all, and there are hundreds of fellows who have got their degrees, and are nearer getting jobs of any sort.

Swarup: That may be so; but I am not studying so much to pass my examination and obtain my degree, as to store my mind with knowledge and develop my intellectual faculties.

Cebasarup said that nobody could get a degree without passing the examination and he aspired to become a graduate.

Jack declared that being a graduate was useless one could ~~go~~ only go so far as to become a clerk in a government office and a lot of graduates were jobless. Cebasarup agreed, but declared that he was not studying just for becoming a graduate, but also to enhance his knowledge.
