Swarup: Well, you can't get a degree if you don't pass the examination; and I have set my heart on being a graduate.

Jack: And pray what good will graduation do you? You may get a clerkship in a government office, but that's all, and there are hundreds of fellows who have got their degrees, and are nearer getting jobs of any sort.

Swarup advised that if he couldn't get a degree if he didn't pass the examination and he had set made his heart on being graduate.

Jack questioned Swarup what good would graduation do him. He might get a clerkship in a government office but that's all, and there are hundreds of fellows who have got their degrees, and are nearer getting jobs of any sort.

Swarup: That may be so; but I am not studying so much to pass my examination and obtain my degree, as to store my mind with knowledge and develop my intellectual faculties.
