Life and Works of Nizar Hassan

Nizar Hassan, a famous Palestinian filmmaker, produced two films about Israel's brutality in Palestine. In his first documentary, Independence, he laughs at Israel's idea of independence because they have stolen the land of Palestinians. In his second documentary, My Grandfather's Path, he shared the struggles of Palestinians against Zionist oppression because Israel is planning to steal more land. He also advised the Palestinians to beware of Israel's trap because this can destroy their dreams. Moreover, the author also appreciates Palestine's drama and poetry industry that protects them from this cruel politics. Like their
