

World Peace is a choice of Super Powers

1 Introduction

Thesis Statement:

World Peace is a sole choice of super powers, as they instigate wars to carry out their socio-political and economic interests

2) Historical Overview: Super powers and the maneuvering of global politics

3) How World Peace is a choice of Super Powers?

Super
i) World Powers can play a key role in the strengthening of U.N.O.

ii) Formulation of Comprehensive Plans to curb terrorism iii) Making sea routes useful for trades iv) Discouragement of Containment policies of major Powers

v) Abiding international laws particularly ^{the} increase of non-proliferation vi) To Increase economic interdependence among Super Powers vii) Resolving territorial issues in accordance with UN resolutions viii) Prevent ethno-nationalism in the world ix) Need of and implementation of policies to eradicate poverty

x) Avoid proxy-wars against other states especially in Middle East xi) Use of the space for positive purpose xii) Working collectively to ensure funds for climate affected countries xiii) Refrain from military's bloc politics

Conclusion:

Essay

In a family, the elders, who are the source of income, have the authority to make rules while the rest of the members have to obey. They implement their decisions on others due to their leverage. They break the same rules, when it comes in conflict to their personal or family interest. They have the power to make peace or an enmity with neighbours and other relatives. In the same way, world's super powers have the influence to make peace in the world. In 20th century, world had seen two world wars due to clash of interests of the great powers. In contemporary epoch, the political and economic clout enables them to play a crucial role in the peace of the world. These powers have the authority to ensure peace and stability around the globe. They have the advantage to play its role in the eradicating of the poverty, curbing the terrorism, avoiding the climate disasters, preventing ethnic-nationalism and resolving the territorial issues multilaterally in accordance with international law. Besides this, they can safeguard world peace by discouraging ^{ing} containment policies ~~and~~ ^{en} while encouraging the use of sea routes for positive purposes. Therefore, world peace is a sole choice of super powers as they instigate was to carry out their socio-political and economic interest.