

Artificial Intelligence Phobia is based on Lack of Knowledge

1 Introduction:

Thesis Statement: There are mixed opinions about the existence of artificial intelligence phobia. However, the artificial intelligence phobia isn't based on a lack of knowledge. The artificial intelligence phobia is a ~~frustrating~~ ^{current artificial intelligence} reaction to the ~~of~~ capabilities and its development trends.

2 Artificial Intelligence is real: (Thesis)

- a, Replacing labour force with machine: Increasing unemployment
- b, Artificial Intelligence driven machine would do menial works: limiting people physical activities and impacting their health
- c, Heavy investment to make artificial intelligence weapons
- d, Students using artificial intelligence to do their assignments: Killing the purpose of assignments.
- e, Deepfakes can be used to malign people

3 Artificial Intelligence is based on lack of knowledge: (Antithesis)

- a, Artificial intelligence job opportunities in new fields
- b, Artificial intelligence assists health system: It would assist to lift an extra burden of the system
- c, Artificial intelligence weapons would be under the command of human officers.
- d, Artificial Intelligence would revolutionize education sector: Education would be accessible to every human being according to their requirements
- e, Deepfakes can be identified with softwares.

Date _____

- 4 Artificial Intelligence phobia is a reaction to its development trends (Synthesis)
- a, Artificial intelligence provided opportunities would be limited to skilled labours in limited field.
 - b, Artificial intelligence can be used to discover toxic chemicals: Terrorist groups can use to kill people
 - c, One rogue element would wipe out all ethnic group with artificial intelligence weapons.
 - d, Students mental and emotional development would be limited due to excessive dependence on artificial intelligence
 - e, Initial damage of deepfake is irreparable: Character assassination and disinformation.

5 Conclusion

Youth bulge in Pakistan: an asset or a liability?

1 Introduction:

Thesis Statement: Youth bulge can be an asset or liability for any country. However, the youth bulge in Pakistan is an asset. Therefore, with the proper human development, youth can be turned into a precious asset.

2 Condition of Youth bulge in Pakistan:

3 Youth bulge is an asset for Pakistan: (Thesis)

- It provides Productive labor force
- The youth would play more active role in politics
- It strengthens the law enforcement agencies.
- The youth would develop and modernize the whole country
- They would protect and promote Pakistan's interest in the world as a Pakistani diaspora

4 Youth bulge is a liability for Pakistan: (Antithesis)

- Unskilled labour force has no value in the modern world.
- The youth would threaten the national integration in the polarized politics.
- The youth is susceptible to terrorism.
- Youth would consume limited resources instead of investing in development and modernization
- Pakistani diaspora in the west defame Pakistan by identifying its flaws.

Date _____

5. Youth can be a precious asset with proper human development: (Synthesis)
- a. Trained labour force is a backbone of any economy
 - b. Youth would take country on democratic principles: It would enhance the national integration.
 - c. Youth would eliminate any cause of terrorism: Human rights would be protected along with awareness
 - d. Productive youth would attract foreign investment: China and Vietnam are ideal examples.
 - e. Actions of few people aren't the representation of all diaspora.

6 Conclusion:

There is the old saying that if one gives a bowl made of gold, he would use it for begging. In addition, if any thing gets aware of its real worth, the same bowl would become a source of demise for the beggar. Similarly, the youth bulge is a valuable asset. Therefore, instead of wasting it and turning into a liability, a country should focus on its effective and efficient utilization. Thus, the youth bulge ^{can be} ~~is~~ ⁱⁿ Pakistan an asset or liability for any country. However, the youth bulge in Pakistan is an asset. Therefore, with the proper human development, youth can be turned into a precious asset. They would play active role in ^{the} economic growth as a productive labour force. Moreover, they would take active part in the politics of the country. The youth would strengthen further strengthen their arm forces. They would modernize their country on international standard. Furthermore, they would also play active ^{as a Pakistani diaspora} part to promote its country national interest. However, Opponents believe that the youth bulge would be a liability for a country. Without any skill, labour has a ~~little~~ little value in a modern economy. Furthermore, in ^{the} polarized political atmosphere, the youth would threaten the national integration. Similarly, the youth are more vulnerable to terrorism activities. Moreover, the growing population would consume a major portion of limited resources instead of investing. In addition, the growing young diaspora in the west would defame Pakistan. Nevertheless, the opponents' arguments don't contain strength in order to prove their point. With proper human development, the youth can be a precious asset. Trained human resources are an ultimate asset for growing an economy. Similarly, the educated youth would take the country ^{is politics} on ~~the~~ ^a democratic path. It would also eliminate the cause of terrorism. Furthermore, with the decline of productive workforce in ~~the~~ developed countries, ~~the~~ foreign companies would invest in Pakistan in order to take benefit of Pakistan's productive workforce. Moreover, there are active Pakistani's diaspora all over the west to counter the propaganda of a few Pakistan people and biased organisations.

Date _____