

horrifying number many of them are facing tremendous physical, mental and emotional trauma. Not only women are being oppressed in developing countries, but also, they are murdered in the name of honour killings in third world countries. Women in each corner of the world are dreaming, crying for the plentiful weather which can save their lives and rights.

Generally, a society which lacks the true participation of women with men in all fields is proceeding towards destruction. Therefore, if anybody wants mental, physical peace and satisfaction he has to accept, respect and acknowledge the ambitions, feelings and rights of women.

women dying everywhere.

The marginalisation, segregation and subjugation of women is not a matter of 21st century it is a reality that will live along with women until they ~~never~~ leave to compete at par with man. Rising influence of women in all fields of life is affecting men like a cancer disease. To cure from this disease man has started to own females as a property not as human being. From Adam to till day the ailment of superiority complex has swallowed moral faculties of men. Issues ~~are~~ of women are stated as the most neglected being of a society. However, According to UN report, almost 89000 women were killed last year. Just like every year violence against women is taking its deep roots in patriarchal society. Recently, UN has estimated that two third of the casualties are women and children in Gaza. Except this
