

Topic:- Social media has destroyed Real Life Communication

1- Introduction No doubt,

Thesis statement:- Social media has created ease in communication but it has destroyed real life communication. People are getting addicted to social media and do not have time for friends and family. It has also affected emotional and face-to-face connection of the people.

2- Social media and Real Life Communication.

3- How social media has destroyed Real Life Communication.

a) Addiction of social media and accounts on every social media website has made life busy.

b) Social media has gulped family time and Real Communication.

c) Craze of uploading pictures of gatherings has reduced the charm of meetups.

d) Boredom during real life conversations.

e) Misunderstandings due to impaired social emotional cues on social media also affects real-life communication.

4- How social media has not destroyed real life communication.

- a) social media accounts on every platform is for people-to-people interaction.
- b) man needs to refresh himself after all day job.
- c) Pictures are taken and posted to create memories.
- d) People interestingly talk about social media highlights in real life conversation.
- e) Impaired social and emotional cues are due to biased nature of the society.

5. Despite having advantages, social media has really destroyed real life communication to a great extent.

- a) Fear of missing out news feed on every social media account is gulping time of an individual.
- b) social media use has taken away the culture of family sitting and gossiping after dinner.
- c) excessive use of mobile at gathering gives less time to interact and communicate.
- d) increasing use of social media has restricted ^{our} interest in family affairs.
- e) social media communication lacks real life communication emotions and creates issue in real life communication.

6. Conclusion.

Topic :- 2s Feminism a clearly understood concept in our society.

1. Introduction

Thesis statement:- Feminism continues to receive constant backlash in our society. This is mainly because of the misinterpretation of Feminist discourse. It is because of the misinterpretation of women's equality with sameness and harsh words used in posters of Aurat March.

2. Exploring the real meaning of feminism

3- ^{How} ~~Why~~ Feminism is a misunderstood concept in our society.

- Backlash of Aurat March posters reveals misconceptions.
- Negative connotation of word feminism perpetuates misunderstanding.
- Allegations of promoting western agenda deepened the misunderstanding.
- Accusation of feminism being unislamic highlights misinterpretation.
- Fear that embracing feminism means denouncing cultural values fuels misunderstanding.

4. How feminism can be a clearly understood concept in our society.

- By designing posters of Aurat March with

- appealing words rather than harsh words.
- Feminists can actively engage masses by dismantling negative connotation.
 - By giving awareness that women rights are human rights.
 - Educating people by highlighting the compatibility of Islam and gender equality.
 - Recognizing that reforming culture does not equate to renouncing culture.

5- Negative ~~mean~~ understanding of Feminism has overshadowed its true meaning

- People of patriarchal mindset perpetuates ~~anti-negative~~ ^{mis-} meaning of the posters either they are with polite words or harsh words.
- Negative interpretation of Feminism and feminist as a ^{known as} misguide ~~is~~ in the society.
- Feminism is considered as a western agenda but not as equal human rights.
- Basic rights of women are being violated in the name of ^{Islam}.
- Culture considers ^{negative meaning of that is} feminism as sameness to man but it is equality with man.

6- Conclusion

Topic:- The Necessity of, and Resistance to, 'old-age homes' in our society:-

1 Introduction

Thesis statement:- old age homes are the dire need of today's society. It is the need of childless couples, or single without marriage or for unattended elders. The concept is being discouraged due to social stigma. However, it can be positively promoted by raising awareness and by introducing state sponsored old-age homes.

2. old-age homes and its need and Resistance.

3- Why old-age homes are needed in our Society.

- a) For childless couples or for single people without marriage.
- b) Needed because of migration of children for better career opportunities.
- c) Need of those who have lost their families in calamities/natural disasters.
- d) Changing psychological behaviour of old-aged people and least tolerance of youth.
- e) Restrictions on elders.
- f) Lack of family attention.

4) Why resistance to old-age homes exists in our Society?

- a) Religious influence, every religion condemns the act of dishonouring parents.
- b) Traditional joint family systems.
- c) Social stigma regarding reputation in social circle.
- d) Some families consider elders as valuable assets.
- e) Society consider old-age home just a structure of concrete & bricks.
- f) Greed for more share in parents' and grand parents' property.
- g) Arrangement of full time nurses for elders.

57 How concept of old-age homes can be promoted positively.

- a) By introducing state sponsored oldage homes.
- b) By raising awareness regarding rights of senior citizens.
- c) Dwellers of existing old-age homes can help in portraying good image.
- d) By introducing the concept of companionship for elders.

6- conclusion.