

Rise of Islamophobia and Responsibilities of Muslim Ummah

1- INTRODUCTION

Thesis Statement: The surge in the wave of Islamophobia is due to the prevalence biasness against muslim in political, economic, administrative structure. Therefore, Muslim Ummah should take initiatives at local and global level to illuminate the true spirit of Islam.

2- Definition of Islamophobia

Islamophobia is a prejudice against muslim in terms of hijab, mosque, halal food, etc.

3- Manifestation of a rising level of Islamophobia

a) Islamophobia in Political Sphere

- (i) - Usage of anti-Islamic narrative in politics
- (ii) - Muslim politicians get less support and representation

b) In Economic Sphere

- (i) - Stricter policies against Muslim companies
- (ii) - Muslim based small-and-medium size industries get less support from Revenue

(iii) - Halal food industries get stringent actions by the inspections due to Islamophobia

(C) - In social domain

(i) - Muslim women are facing discrimination over hijab and veil issue

(ii) - Muslim are not allow to pray namaz in public

(d) In Media and ART

(i) Media, and cinematic arts are portraying negative perception of Islam

4- Responsibilities of Muslim Ummah to deal with this conundrum

(i) - Muslim Ummah make a counter-balance organization to deal with Populist

(ii) - Promote inter-faith harmony with other religion

(iii) - Empower the OIC to represent muslim at global level

(iv) - utilized media, internet to form positive perception about Islam

5-

CONCLUSION