

DATE: ___/___/___

GSS 2003 Precis

Title : University education and intellectual of Society.

Higher education undoubtedly plays a major role in the making of a balanced human society. University education is neither confined nor rigid in its scope with certain set ulterior objectives. It is not a fertile ground that promises intellectual manpower to the society though it is helpful in the making of them. University and its education is ~~an~~ in fact a simple means to achieve great ends. It make the society and its members aware of what is good and bad for them and facilitates them to acquire and maintain credibility in these endeavours.

(words 94)