

Pakistani women have the same chances
as men.

1 Introduction

a) Thesis statement:

Pakistani women faces challenges in every field of life. There are only a few lucky women who enjoy the equal status as men in the society. But, there are a large number of women who are not allowed to participate in any field of life. If a woman gets a chance to prove herself, she has to work in patriarchal system in Pakistan.

2) What is meant by the same chances of men and women.

3) Pakistani Women do not enjoy the equal status as men in ~~the~~ the society.

a) Pakistani girls do not have the same access to education as men.

b) Laws and court procedures are gender-biased in Pakistan.

c) Pakistani Political Institutions are dominated by men.

d) Women are not allowed to participate in decision making.

e) Women are not allowed to participate in economic activities.

4) Pakistani Women are allowed to participate in any field of life.

a) Women are allowed to get education in every discipline.

b) Laws and court procedures ensure women free and fair trial.

c) Pakistani Political Party System encourage women to participate in politics.

d) Many women are participating in high level decision making in Pakistani

e) Many women in Pakistan are contributing their valuable services in Pakistani Economy.

5) Every women in Pakistan is facing gender inequality at every level.

a) If a women get a chance to get education, she has to face gender biasness in classrooms

- b) There are many defects in laws and court procedures that favours men and marginalized women
- c) Women need permissions of their male family members to participate in politics in Pakistan
- d) Women's voice has little value in decision making process in Pakistan.
- e) Those women who participate in economic activities faces different types of challenges in Pakistan.
- b) Conclusion