Dialogue.

- ① Sawarup: Well, you can't get a degree if you don't pass the examination; and I have set my heart on being a graduate.

Sawarup replied that he had set his heart on being a graduate and it could not be possible without passing the examination.

- ② Jack: And pray what good will graduation do you? You may get a clerkship in a government office; but that's all, and there are b<sup>o</sup> hundreds of fellows who got their degrees, and are nearer getting jobs of any <sup>sorts.</sup> jobs.

Jack predicted the only benefit of graduation that he might get a clerkship in a government and said that there were hundreds of graduates who were unable to get job of any sort.
