

The incident of 9/11 shocked the whole world. No one was expecting that such an incident can happen in mighty USA. Many conspiracy theories are associated with this heinous incident.

This single event effected the whole world. After 9/11 scenario was completely change. Particularly, Muslim countries have to face US' wrath. Hundreds of innocent civilian died <sup>in this attack</sup>. US blamed Al Qaeda for this attack. US and its allies started war of terror to eradicate terrorism completely on the face of Earth. US and allies invaded Afghanistan because the then Taliban govt accused of providing shelter to Osama bin Laden.

United states needed Pakistan due to its unique location.

United states needed Pakistan's airbases to attack Afghanistan on September 13 Deputy Secretary of State Richard Armitage handed over a list of US demands to Pakistan, and Pakistan was told in clear tone that you must accept all demands.

Colin Powell the then US Secretary of State told President Musharraf that you are either with us or against us. At that time Pakistan was in difficult situation facing internal chaos.

The American pressure was immense on President Musharraf.

He decided to join the coalition forces. President Musharraf's decision was not based on general will of people. This war on terror cost heavily to Pakistan. Almost 2000 Pakistani soldiers and one lac civilians died in this war. Besides human loss, Pakistan's economy had to bear billions of dollar loss to economy. Extremism and foreign interference were the worst disadvantages faced by Pakistan due to its involvement in war. Pakistan became a client state in the hands of Global Powers. Pakistan's image was severely deteriorated at International level particularly in Islamic world. Generally, Muslim consider Osama bin Laden as hero of Islam. There were opinion among muslims that Pakistan helped Grand Satan against heroes of Islam in the war on terror.

General Ayub's period is considered as revolutionary period in Agriculture sector. General Ayub addressed all those issues which were previously unaddressed. Production in Agriculture sector increased due to reforms taken by General Ayub. Pakistan's GDP increased by 15%. It was great achievement. Landlords were asked to keep 500 acres of irrigation and 1000 acres of non-irrigation land. The land freed from landlords added to civil and military officers. The remaining land distributed among civilians related with Agriculture. This increased productivity. Easy loans were provided to farmers. Farmers were guided about modern methods of irrigation. Although, there were some failures, General Ayub's reforms led to prosperity.
