

oxygenated and the body. All the components work their own task properly and our body work.

Decline of Education System in Pakistan

1. Introduction.

This statement The system of education in Pakistan decline gradually.
Because it faces different problems such as old syllabus, lack of resources and low budget etc.

So, it is important to take some steps, which include proper allocation of resources and upgrade the level of education, to handle the situation.

2. An Overview of current system of education.

3. Why the system of education decline in Pakistan?

- a) Corruption is the main issue for every problem.
- b) Old system of education cannot fulfill today's needs.
- c) Lack of resources is an important problem.
- d) Hiring untrained staff is a hurdle in progress.
- e) Low budget for education system cannot fulfill requirements.

4. Decline of education system impacts badly:

- a) Non-Technical and untrained generation is formed.
- b) Country moves toward economical decline because of decline in education.
- c) State cannot stand with the globe.
- d) Bad image of the state forms in front of the world.

5. Key takeaways to uplift the education system:

- a) Proper allocation of resources
- b) Proper allocation of finance to fulfill requirements
- c) Ensures Training of the staff by the government.
- d) Update syllabus according to today's world.
- e) Held ~~Applying~~ practical workshops for student training
- f) learn students the skill of critical thinking.
- g) Train students for physical activities as well as for mental activities

6. Conclusion
