

CE-2021 Comprehension

Questions:

1. Why does the doctrine of power set by neo-imperial America deny space to counselling?

The doctrine of power set by neo-imperial America denies space to counselling because this doctrine reflects America's hyperpower in terms of its willingness to go to war as the only means to fulfil the national end i.e. security. Despite public disagreement, America has decided to wage war in order to protect national interests. Therefore, the doctrine of power of America denies space to counselling.

Question 2:

What is the essence of 'moral equivalence' whereas War has no moral justification?

War has no moral justification; however, the essence of 'moral equivalence' in the above passage is the moral equality of two states in terms of waging of war. Furthermore, there is no moral equivalence between countries when it comes to war for the sake of country's security.

Question 3:

Why do countries occupied and under the tutelage of hyperpower have no peace?

The countries occupied and under the tutelage of hyperpower have no peace.

because they are occupied and administered according to the objectives of those who capture them. These countries are not run by an era of democracy in which the government belongs to the people, the voices of common people are heard and mitigated. Rather, such countries are affected drastically upon the arrival of warlords who killed countless innocents in order to achieve so-called security objective. Hence, the countries occupied and under the tutelage of the hyperpower have no peace.

Question 4:

Arguably Europe and hyperpower US are at cross purposes over the concept of war. Are they? why?

Europe and hyperpower US are

at cross purposes over the concept of war, because Europe is somehow ready to counsel over war issue but US does not. Despite world anti-war protests, America has decided to wage war alone. In this regard media has portrayed a negative image of Europe and stressed hyperpower of US. One of the hosts said that there is no moral equivalence between the US and Belgium. Therefore, in this way it can be argued that Europe and assertive US are at cross purposes over the concept of war.

Question 5:

What Tony Blair's meant by 'wise counsel', and did it prevail?

Tony Blair suggested 'wise counsel' as option against hyperpower.

He was in favor of wise counsel as compared to waging war by the hyperpowers. However, this concept of wise counsel did not prevail because the governments as well as the people across the globe refused to accept this counsel.
