

Pakistan Economy is the economy of Elites

1. Introduction

2. How economy of Pakistan is elite's economy.

3. Yes, Pakistan economy is the economy of elites.

a. Trickle down approach - An elite centric approach

b. Elite driven: economic planning of Pakistan

c. Big guns enjoy Government subsidies and Tax exemption

d. Share of Indirect taxes in Pakistan supersedes Direct tax

e. Economic decisions: Discretion of elites

4. Pakistan economy is not only economy of elites but also of Poor.

a. Trickle down approach - a tool for development of Poor

b. Economic planning: Keeping in view of Poor demands

c. Provision of Government Perks to Elite - necessary for economic development of country

d. Direct tax payers: increasing with time ^{consensus}

e. Economic decision; Made with Poor involvement

5. In economy of Pakistan, Elites are core while poor are periphery.

a. Elite gets more benefit than Poor from Trickle Approach

b. Poor oriented economic planning is seen in merely on Paper not on ground level

c. Elites asset : growing rapidly than eogrowth of country

d. IMF demands Pakistan to expand tax networks and reduce indirect Tax burden

e. Economic decision making belongs to elite class not poor class

6. Conclusion

c. Elites asset : growing rapidly than eogrowth of country

d. IMF demands Pakistan to expand tax networks and reduce indirect Tax burden

e. Economic decision making belongs to elite class not poor class

6. Conclusion