

(English Essay)

Outline "Despite its urgency, climate crisis remains the most neglected cause."

1. Introduction

(Thesis statement) The climate crisis and its sequelae are now being reflected on our everyday lives. Yet its impending effects go unrecognized.

2. How is the climate issue neglected?

3. Climate crisis - an age old issue.

- a. The issue of climate crisis is decades old.
- b. Practices that have led to global warming.
- c. Role of industrialization and urbanization.
- d. The greed to attain economic superiority has made nations <sup>to</sup> forget about its impact on environment.
- e. The extravagant lifestyle of elites and its consequences.

4. The urgency of the matter of climate catastrophe is underestimated and sidelined.

- a. We have already reached era of global boiling.
- b. Increase in natural disasters every year.
- c. Climate crisis is impacting people across the globe.

- d. The inability of financially weak countries like Pakistan to combat the natural disasters.
- e. Habits and practices that are leading to the end of time.

5. What immediate measures must be taken to ensure sustainability?

- a. Reduced carbon emissions per country
- b. Monitor countries to ensure they follow the allocated quota of carbon emission.
- c. Reduce carbon footprint by mitigating the use of fossil fuels.
- d. Switch to renewable resources of energy.
- e. Helping poor countries that face harsh consequences of climate change.

6. conclusion.