

Eagles Fly Against the Wind

1- Introduction

Human life is a mixture of hardships and pleasures. However, there are only few persons who accept pain of hardships as a challenge. So, instead of escaping the problem they try to face it and overcome it.

2- How eagles fly against the wind

3- How individuals overcome the hardships

- a- Believing in one-self
- b- Undermining the financial obstacles
- c- (Haro) Accepting hardships as challenge to one's potential
- d- Overcoming the fear of family expectations
- e- Stepping out of the comfort zone
- f- Challenging the rigid norms imposed by relatives

4- Hardships faced by individuals in professional and societal sphere

- a- Partial organizational norms
- b- Gender oriented work environment
- c- Promotion based on the compromise of moral principles
- d- Unequal job opportunities
- e- Association of status with profession
- f- Social stratification
- g- Imposition of strict social norms

5. Broader spectrum engendering hardships

- a. Traditional education - the hardest challenge for students
- b. Stigmatization of co-education by religious scholars
- c. Austerities faced by Islamic religious role models
- d. Antagonistic forces against military forces
- e. Challenges for a leader in uplifting the economy of state
- f. Countering Western interests in state's foreign policy
- g. Struggle of enlightenment philosophers against monarchy

6. Conclusion