

When there is a will, there is a way

Outline

1- Introduction

Thesis statement: It is a proven fact that when there is a will, there is a way. Role of family, society, media, etc is responsible for a will to move towards its way. However, certain other policies can shape a will on its direct way as destination of it.

2- An overview of relationship between one's will and its way

3- Individual's will opens a door of its way

- a) Family's success generates anticipation and motivation
- b) Strength of social attachment develops a prosperous society
- c) Role of media aims at cultural mingle
- d) Necessaries of life provide leading opportunities of earning
- e) Education encourages decision skills of availing chances

4- Religious interpretation on a will leading to its way

- a) Reward and success for a good will by Almighty Allah
- b) Appreciation of Shariah or a will of people
- c) Farman-e-Nabvi: Dual success of a good will
- d) Paradigm of Ashraf's council for a uniform way of certain applications

5- Environmental factors in promoting a successful will

- a) Peace negotiation and agreements among countries
- b) Peoples awareness about climate debates on multi-international conferences
- c) Counter-Islamophobia at the United Nations General Assembly

6- Proactive policies to drive a will towards its way

- a) Active engagement and attachment of parents with their children
- b) Launch of competitions among young at national and international level
- c) Positive perception of media such as, motivational stories, movies, and advertisements
- d) Global appreciation of achievements with its hard work

7- Conclusion