

Date: _____

"It Matters Not What Someone
Is Born, But What They Grew
To Be"

OUTLINE:

- ① INTRODUCTION:
- ② CRUNCH PARAGRAPH

Thesis statement

③ If you are born poor, it is not your mistake, but if you die poor it is your mistake.

Ⓐ Born as ordinary person — providing shelters to millions.

Ⓑ Born and raised as an orphan but led humanity

Ⓒ A personality who failed to prevent his mother from death but now having the world's largest ambulance network

Ⓓ Sex does not hinder one's fate.

Ⓔ A gentleman born and bred under monarchy — replaced it with democracy.

Ⓕ A common individual born outside the USA and ruled its 48 states.

Date: _____

④ Professions are not inherited, but are created by the society.

(a) A small villager is now renowned as Rawalpindi Express.

(b) A local player's passion made him an international athlete.

(c) Societal circumstances inaugurated new profession of nursing.

(d) Inmate social hurdles cannot in-cage one's passion.

(e) Thirst of knowledge encouraged a security guard to become a lecturer.

⑤ Leaders are not born, but are created.

(a) A famous Caliphate of Islam; born as non-Muslim but ruled the world.

(b) A leader born in British colony, had altered the world's map.

(c) A poet changed the dynamics of sub-continent through his vision.

(d) The leader of a small Muslim country challenged the writ of super power.

(e) Conclusion