

We are not known by what we say, but by what we do.

OUTLINE

1) Introduction

This statement, "What people do is more significant than their empty words." In order to be known among the people, one has to work for what they say, otherwise their words will be meaningless and they ~~will~~^{can} not achieve anything.

2) A man is known by his actions rather than his words.

3) Significance of action

a) an individual learns from his parents' actions rather than their words.

b) An individual can earn respect by his actions.

c) Success can be achieved by actions only

4) Words give directions to actions

a) Any action can be taken after having a plan

b) Political thoughts of the philosophers give directions to the politicians

c) Scientific experiment is conducted by applying theory

d) Pakistan emerged as a result of two nation theory

e) A country is run by its constitution

5) Words with action can change the world

5) Words without actions can not bring changes

a) A country can not be developed by singing patriotic song but by working for it

b) ~~Words~~ anarchic order can not be changed by peace treaties until implemented.

c) Palestine issues can not be solved by condemning Israel until taken action

6) Words with action can change the world

a) Rosa Park's struggle ~~for~~ and achievement for racial equality

b) Martin Luther King, Jr.'s speech "I have a dream" into reality

c) Nelson Mandela quoted "It is in your hands, to make a better world for all who live in it"

7) Being an example is better than giving an example.

a) Mughal Emperor as an example of Justice

b) Abdul Sattar Edhi as an example of humanity

c) Dr. Ruth Pfau as a true life saver

8) Conclusion