

Translation : Mock : 07

Million of Pakistani's youth belong to generation z. This generation born after 2000 and now at the age of 23, 24. In whole world, this generation is considered as the physically weak and mentally psycho in human history. It grows up in the era which is of the highest usage of technology in human history. This generation is grows up by using technology. It has approach to internet, mobile phones, tablets, TV channel and social media. This generation do not trained by elders rather by social media. It has only one issue in whole world that is it has lesser patience and higher anger. The physical health of this generation is weak and improper. In human history this generation is taking more time to be independent.