

Heroism : A Necessary Trait For all Times Warriors

Faith, Discipline and courage are the important traits of all the successful warriors. These attributes keep them potentate even in the midst of turbulent events. Qualities of bravery in commander over-dominates their other things even ugly ones. History is full of such examples where a fragile body or physical health conditions could not stop them from a great win. After that, there comes a question about age of lead that if age can be a limiting factor. Nevertheless, great military ruler had made their triumph in their sixties e.g. Caesar, Foch and Moore. It is true that passion, excitement and power of youth can not be related with the old age ruler, but wisdom of old age commander can also not be kept at back. At present realm, young warrior has become more demanded, and it a righteous step towards score.