

Price hike in Pakistan: The worst of all worries

OUTLINE

1- Introduction

Thesis statement: Price

hike is a burning question of the world generally and Pakistan particularly. Various factors are responsible for inflation which are impacting almost every strata of community and resultantly causing a number of problems. Therefore, it is the need of hour to take pragmatic steps to curb this issue.

2- How the hike in price is the worst of all worries in Pakistan

3- Responsible factors behind price hike

- a) Heavy taxation and conditions of IMF

- b) Fluctuation of supply and demand
- c) International crisis of inflation
- d) Inflation caused by population explosion
- e) Devaluation of currency

4- Impacts of Price hike in different fields

- a) Poverty increases owing to high taxation and IMF's conditions
- b) Unemployment increase due to increase in cost of production
- c) Living standard of masses is effected by inflation.
- d) Widness in Rich poor gap
- e) Crime Increase in crime rate

5- Strategies to curb Price hike

- a) Economic reforms at grass root level.
- b) Criminalise stocking and smuggling of dollars with massive penalitise
- c) Enhancement in exports to save forex reserve.
- d) Built-up a price control mechanism.
- e) Crackdown against industrial cartels.

6- Conclusion