

Pakistan's National Culture reflects unity in diversity

— Outline —

a. Introduction

From every aspect, Pakistan's national culture is an embodiment of unity in diversity, where people from different races, colour, religions and economic classes are united under the banner of Pakistan.

b. How Pakistan's national Culture reflects Unity in diversity

1. Diverse regional, but one national language.
2. Constitution allowing diversity, and encompassing demands of all groups
3. Holding different ethnic and cultural groups together.
4. Protection of rights of religious minorities
5. Rising gender equality in all aspects of life.
6. Absence of factors like sexism and racism.

Date _____

c. How Pakistan's culture can become more united while maintaining diversity

1. Protection of rights of disadvantaged aged groups.
 2. Provision of education to people that diversity is a boon rather than a curse.
 3. Enhancing ⁱⁿ attraction between different communities and groups to remove differences.
- d. Conclusion.

Good
Keep writing