

(Comprehension --- 2003)

Nature of Trouble --- ?

① The troubles mentioned by the writer were of financial nature. The writer and his family suffered financially when the employees of company in which his father worked went on strike for the restoration of an employee who was fired for taking marriage leave.

sentence is too long reduce and simplify

② The working conditions of electronic firm where writer's father worked were very cruel. The firm owners fired the workers for minor mistakes, like taking leave for marriage. They did not seem to care about the financial conditions of people.

③ Why his colleague was sacked?
The colleague of writer's father was sacked or dismissed from firm because he took leave for his marriage, which the firm owners did not like so they fired him.

single sentence ans is incorrect format hence not accepted

④ The writer and his father were close to each other but they did not know much about each other because they talked only about events not about emotions. They hid their

Date: _____

fears, doubts, and hopes from each other - They did not talk about things like ~~what~~ they actually want in life and what they got -

rest is satisfactory
attend to pointed out mistakes 8/20
basics grammar is ok
improve your hand writing