Title: Mountbatten Hypocrisy in ^{Jodhpur} Jodhpur Accession

All princely states along with Jodhpur had no accession to anyone on the spot. Jodhpur's Maharajah approached Jinnah for succession. Jinnah offered a blank page. Before, Maharajah took action, he was ^{summoned} summoned from viceroy house. Menon told all ^{circumstances} circumstances to Mountbatten as Maharajah reached the viceroy house. Mountbatten ^{convinced} convinced Maharajah that Jinnah was not in position to ^{give guarantees} give guarantee and state destroyed if ^{it acceded} ~~accession~~ to Pakistan. He also assured accession to India would not mean to end his pleasure. At last, the agreement was done in absence of viceroy. (89/264)
