

1. Introduction

Topic: If I want a shoe mended whom should I employ?

In life's intricate journey, man often encounters myriad challenges. To face these, he seeks assistance to stitch the threads of unknown journeys with unflinching support. He boldly navigates the path of unknown, turning challenges into opportunities for growth.

As the curtain rises on the grand stage of life, each of us emerges as a character in our own play. In this theatrical journey, fraught with twists and turns, we encounter moments when our soul, like weary actors, yearns for the hands of a masterful director. So, in the script of our lives, if I want to mend my shoe, who would I employ to choreograph the dance of my footsteps through the complexities of the world.

If someone desires for custom-made shoes that help him to walk comfortably on uneven path, then he should carefully select the right individual and brand to assist him. Same goes in the garden of man's life where the blossoms of potential coexist with thorns of challenges, he also craves the touch of skilled gardeners. Just as the plant ^{needs} sunlight, water care of gardeners to grow, man also yearns for assistance. He seeks assistance of education to broaden his mind and professionalists to shape his career. He consults religion institution and ethical codes of lives to solve the ethical dilemmas in life. He delves into art, culture and philosophy that helps him to understand the intricate nature of life. He seeks solace in nature to heal that life leaves on his spirit. The thrones of life also assist him to look unto oneself. The reflection in self engages him to repair cracks in one's side. He strives for his personal growth.

to weave together the threads of his dream. He embraces challenges, flaws in his life to mend the gaps in personal growth. He takes care of his mental and physical health and practice gratitude to mend dissatisfaction in life. The gaining of knowledge, mentorship, understanding of art and culture makes him mindful of challenges and possibilities. Advices from parents fortify him against the storms of life. Experience of travelling, history and philosophy enriches his views and offers directions in the face of contemporary dilemmas. So, attaining assistance from all these prepares him to walk on uneven path purposefully.

- b)
- c)
- d)
- e)
- f)
- g)
- h)
- 2-

3 - Similar to entrusting a worn-out shoe to a skilled cobbler who stitches, repairs and reinforces it, individuals turn to their support system, seeking guidance, wisdom and understanding.

a) Seeking guidance from a career counsellor stitches the tears in career path.

- a)
- b)
- c)

b) Enrolling in reputable institution mends the loose ends of personality. ✓

c) Consulting religious scholars or practicing religious rituals provide solace. ✓

d) Exploring different cultures can mend the divides in soul. ✓

e) Seeking therapy can mend the wounds of past. ✓

f) Embracing wisdom from elders can mend the gaps in life's journey. ✓

g) Choosing a leader fosters a nurturing environment. ✓

h) Seeking solace in nature can heal the scars that life leaves on our spirit. ✓

2- Embarking on introspection, man explores his strength and weakness, crafting journey to mend and strengthen his personality

a) Engaging in self reflection helps repair cracks in one's side. ✓

b) Embracing challenges can mend the gaps in personal growth. ✓

c) Challenges oneself can mend the limitation of personal growth.

- d) Engaging in regular exercise repairs the wear and tear on physical bodies.
- e) Nurturing creativity alters the dullness of one's mind.
- f) Cultivating patience can mend the restlessness of mind.
- g) Supporting charitable cause can mend the inequality of society.
- i) Practicing gratitude can mend the dissatisfaction in life.

5. Why we need guidance in life? What is the purpose of guidelines.

- a) Guidance from professionals broadens career horizons, shedding light on choices and their implication.
- b) Deeper knowledge and experience gained through education makes us mindful.
- c) Spiritual teaching heals boundaries of our soul.
- d) The beauty of art and culture deepens our understanding of social issues.
- e) Community engagement engages us to enrich our perspective.

- A) Travel experiences enrich our worldview.
- g) Historical knowledge offers directions in the face of contemporary dilemmas.
- h) Philosophy helps in ethical decision making in face of dilemmas.

6. Conclusion:

In a nutshell, as world is full with challenges, it is also full with opportunities, possibilities to counter them. By seeking help from various institutions, and by believing in his own capabilities man can mend the frayed threads of his life.

Although the world is full of suffering, it is also full of overcoming it.

- Helen Keller.

Good