	Discuss the status and grade of tolerance and forgivness of tolerance and forgivness in the life of Holy `,	Prophet (P.B.U.H) ? CSS - 2020
	Introduction:
	Tolerance and forgiveness were integral aspects of the life. of Holy prophet He exemplified these virtues and adopted these as a way of life He was best known for reconciling people at war and forgiving his opponents in conflict Because his motto was the establishment of peace all over- Quran itself declarer these attributes of Prophet Muhammad as "We have sent you (Muhammad) as a mercy to mankind" try to add the arabic of quranic ayats as well. (Al- Anbiya 21: 107)
	a) Tolerance & Forgivness; message of Islam:
	The word Islam is derived from "slm" which means peace. means peace.

Islam demands peace and brotherhood which is possible only by tolerance and forgiveness After attaining the prophet hood, the Holy Prophet's conquest was full of tolerance preservance and peace.
b) Promoted culture of immunity and forgiveness:
The Prophet was a great advocate of the culture of	· impunity and forgiveness. Once a man named Musaylima claimed himself as a messenger of Allah along with prophet Muhammad (PBUH). When envoy reached the Prophet delivering the Prophet Musaliy ma's message, the prophet exclaimed 9f you were not an eproy, I would've sentenced you to death" c) Instead of war, he bore the pangs of migration:
The Holy Prophet (PBUH) had to b endure twelve years of brutal adversary from his own kin until he could take it no more and had to eventually migrate to Medina. He prefer hardshijzs of migration but avoid to fight his own people -

	d) Embodiment of blessing in words and deeds:
	This shows the distinctive qualify of Prophet that he was
-	a blessing incarnate in word and deed. According to a tradition recorded in Sahih Muslim: When the prophet's opponents greatly increased their presecution, his companion asked him to curse them. At 100s he replied; I have not been sent to lay a curse upon men but to be a blessing to them?
	e) No vengeance against aggressors of Taaif:
	The Prophet went to Tagif to call them toward Islam. But a 1760 3790 the people of Tagif proved to be cruel and intolerant. They	11 set street urehin upon him	11 who attacked him and when he was belieding from head	× to foot, an angel was sent and presented him with an option to destroy the valley	1 of Taxif But he restrained the Angel and prayed for their salvation-their salvation-

The Prophe said; Forgive him
The Prophe said: Forgive him who wrongs you, Joins him who cut you off, Do good to him who does evil to you and speak truth although it be against yourself." These word	$ reflect themselves how much the prophet opted to keep peace as a fixet and foremost priority.	2001
He also said: The best of Islam is to behave with gentleness and tolerance?

	9) Forgave the murderer of his beloved uncle:
	The mercy of Holy Prophet was even extended to those who killed his beloved ones. Hamza was one of the earliest to accept Islam and one of the most beloved people to Prophet. An Abyssinian slave of wife of Abu Sufiyan, Hinda Killed Hamza in
-	battle of Uhud and mutilated his body. When she came to Holy Prophet and accepted Islam, he recognized her but said nothing.
	h) Tolerance of Prophet during victory of Makkah:
	The people of Makkah were his worst enemy. They tount, mock, and beat him. They even plotted to kill him. When her entered Makkah victorious with army of 10000 he did not take revenge on anyone.

Holy Prophet; a hallmark of tolerance:	ls tolerance: Holy Prophet was a hallmark of justice tolerance. Such manners of tolerance gained him high respect even of his enemies.
As A former president Nixon said "The greatest honour history can bestow is that of a peacemaker". The non-muslim people of west was impressed by teachings of Prophet. As George Bernard Shaw States: "I have studied him (Muhammad). the wonderful man and in my opinion far from being ar anti-ehrist He must be called saviour of mankind".	20 Muslim philosopher lays stress	S U on tolerance. Moderation and folerance are unque qualities of a muslim an beauty of Islam.
Intolerance and extremism are against the teaching of Prophet"sho	rt answer!!
