

The Misguided Humans

All the chaos in the world is brought about by the misguided persons.

The writer believed that the main cause of their misguidedness is the lack of passive virtues not the active ones. The evil power always engages humans in wrong doing. But if politicians realized that the lack of actions is not the main problem <sup>in fact</sup> but ~~it~~ is the lack of <sup>their</sup> ethical constraints, then ~~the~~ it will be more beneficial for the people. The statesmen have been showing the same selfish ~~idling~~ behavior as of World War 1. They despite having all the (energy) resources had done nothing against the brutality
