Q7. Translation.

The system of education of every country of the world is in accordance with the temperament of its people, which shapes and forms its national objectives. And the nation remains actively engaged for these important motives. Therefore, the system of education of any nation is that holistic system of training through which the mental capabilities of its people are polished, and their character and conduct is contrived. The system of education trains people in such a way that they become capable of changing the fate of their nation.
