Each era brings along it many such things that are not liked by some but these have to be accepted. Sometimes nature, so as to test us, brings many things before us that neither mean anything to us nor we do anything with them. Yet, we have to integrate them into lives.

Same is happening even today. Each century has been bringing such many changes that were unknown in previous ones. Development of natural art and science gives a lot to man what can be called direct intellectual and economic activities. Nature gives us facts and obligate with it dispose of residue in proper way, failing it further pollute the environment.

The saint told that there was a mountain on the other side of the forest where grew a flower which fragrance restores the lost eyesight. But the mountain is very and there were many rocks, thorn bushes, and huge boulders that blocked the way. Many people tried but no one could reach the flower. perhaps, that was reason there are sorrow and pain in the world and man all the time is in pursuit of light.

Title: Manto's Realistic Depiction of Life

Manto was labelled as vulgar by the self-righteous hypocrites who question the moral validity of his works. But he resolutely continued to explore the harsh truths of life. He displayed his concern for the social outcasts by bringing to the light the matters of sex without obscuring them. Manto considered man neither good nor bad. His characters live like actual humans.

Therefore, because of his realistic approach towards people's nature, he was unable to find his readers' attention who found their anxiety portrayed in his works. This allowed Manto, like Joyce or Caldwell, to ~~raise~~ raise above himself.

Title: Role of ancient Greece
Soothsayers

It was in the nature of human being that he contacted the divine when he was confronting problems. Man believed that divine regulated the universe and changed the fate of people. For that purpose, wishes of god were considered to guide humans through oracles by soothsayers.

Basically, these oracles were believed to be practised in the shape of natural occurring like lightning, firing and sacrifice. In a number of cases, the gods did not show oracles but talked directly in the form of a prophet. Through oracle, future is predicted in a particular place and refers to the particular god.

There were a number of oracles gods who performed different tasks.

Title: Importance of freedom of education

In the context of freedom of education, there are three major schools of thought. First, who say that children should be completely free whether they are bad. Second, who say that children should be accountable whether they are good and third, ~~who~~ who say that, choose the middle way, children should be free, despite freedom they should be good forever.

The last school of thought is more practical and more perfection. They ~~believe~~ believe that should not be more than environment development.

The author does not agree with this. It is due to education society lives together. Education makes a man benevolent, self control and intelligent. It should be more than opportunity for growth. It should provide mental and moral equipment to children.
