Swarup: Well, you can't get a degree if you don't pass the examination; and I have set my heart on being a graduate.

Jack: And pray what good will graduation do you? You may get a clerkship in a government office, but that's all, and there are hundreds of fellows who have got their degrees, and are nearer getting jobs of any sort.

Swarup ^{explained} advised that ~~if~~ he couldn't get a degree if he didn't pass the examination and he had ~~set~~ made his heart on being graduate.

Swarup: That may be so; but I am not studying so much to pass my examination and obtain my degree, as to store my mind with knowledge and develop my intellectual faculties.

Swarup agreed that ^{it} might be but he ^{was} is not studying just to pass examination and obtain degree but to store his mind with knowledge and ^{develop} developed his intellectual faculties.
