

Eagles Fly Against the Wind

1- Introduction

Rewards

Human life is a mixture of hardships and rewards. However, there are only few persons who accept pain of hardships as a challenge. So, instead of escaping the problem they try to face it and overcome it.

2- How eagles fly against the wind

3- How individuals overcome the hardships

- Believing in one-self
- Undermining the financial obstacle
- (Haro) Accepting hardships as challenge to one's potential
- Overcoming the fear of family expectations
- Stepping out of the comfort zone
- Challenging the rigid norms imposed by relatives

4- Hardships faced by individuals in professional and societal sphere

- Partial organizational norms
- Gender oriented work environment
- Promotion based on the compromise of moral principles
- Unequal job opportunities
- Association of status with profession
- Social stratification
- Imposition of strict social norms

Work on sentence structure

5. Broader spectrum ~~engendering hardships~~ a- Traditional ~~education~~ - the hardest challenge for students

Irrelevant argument

b- ~~Stigmatization of co-education by religious scholars~~

c- ~~Austerities faced by ^{Islamic} religious role models~~

d- ~~Antagonistic forces against military forces~~

e- ~~Challenges for a leader in uplifting the economy of State~~

f- ~~Countering Western interests in state's foreign policy~~

g- ~~Struggle of enlightenment philosophers against monarchy~~

6- Conclusion

The arguments are irrelevant and immature

Add comprehensive arguments in the outline