In the annals of world history, the world has experienced seismic shifts, each epoch marked by distinct geopolitical dynamics and power structures.
In alst lentury, the world finds itself amidst another profound transformation, witnessing the contours of new global order taking shape Moreover, the change is the only constant, the outrent manifestation of the international order shows the decline of Us- unepolarity, established with the end of cold war in 1990s.
However, the growing power of However, the growing power of other players at global level challenged the so-called unipolar status of International relations. The increase in global unlestainty, growing public discontent for global leaders, human rights violations, and, fremost, by failing of united nation as peace
