However, the crisis of Taiwan has not yet happened. Both of them have some common points as well as some differences. Starting from common points, both crisis are same as there is ideological and family ties. Then Russia and China do not accept the rival parties, Ukraine and Taiwan. The leaders, Putin and Xi Jinping, are nationalists. Both have similar approach and the destruction from both crisis will be inevitable. Now, for the differences, Ukraine-Russia is one-on-one war but Taiwan crisis won't be a one-on-one war. Security Concerns for US are different in both crisis. II. SIMILARITIES IN TAIWAN AND UKRAINE CRISIS.

Similarities in both Crisis

→ Ideological and family ties

→ Unacceptance of other party

→ Nationalist leaders

→ Same approach of Putin and Xi

→ Destruction is inevitable

i- Ideological and Family Ties

The Russ dynasty is the prefather of Russia. This dynasty's capital was Kyiv. Kyiv is the capital of Ukraine. So Russia claims Ukraine on this stance that it is the land of their prefathers.

The China claims Taiwan because in 17th century, the Hans, most important dynasty for China, started to settle in Taiwan. So they claim Taiwan as their own, a part of China.

Putin's father is from Russia but mother is from Ukraine.

policy. Taiwan, Hongkong, Macau can have their own political System but they will be a part of China.
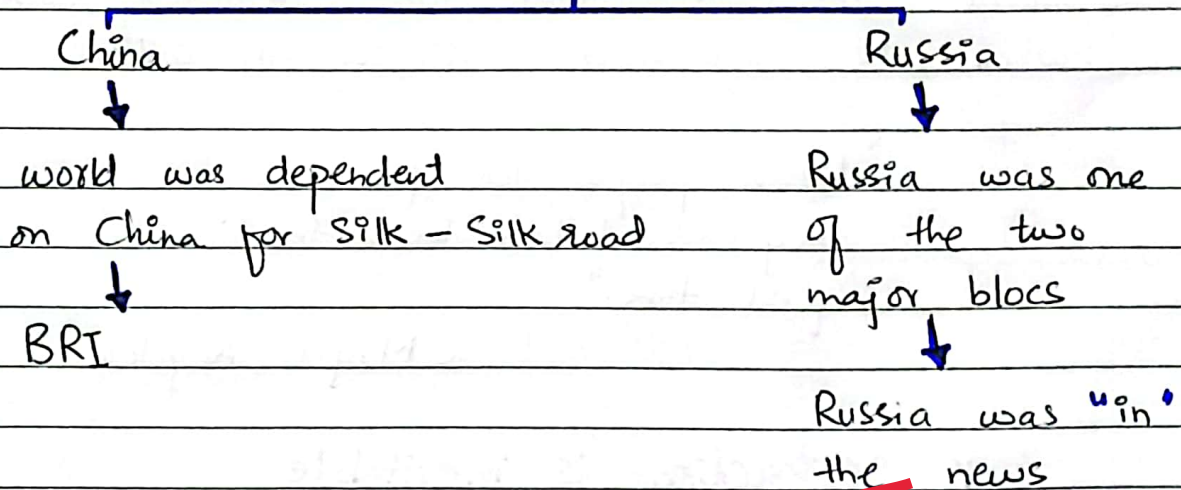

Russia Claims that there is no Ukraine. The President Putin wrote an essay in which he said:

> "There is nothing like Ukraine in the world. It is part of the Russia. One might deviate from history Claiming to have a territory Called Ukraine."

Similarities in leadership

ii. Putin and Xi being nationalist leaders

glory back in Russia.

iv. Same approach of both leaders
China's president is very clear about Taiwan. According to Xi Jinping

"I do not want the problem of China to Taiwan to extent to another generation. I want to tell people of China that Taiwan is coming home."

On the other hand, Putin also has the same approach. He was very clear that any move of NATO towards Ukraine will be dealt with iron hands. The world did not take him seriously even when he attacked Crimea in 2014.

"When people tell you who they are, believe them the first time."

~ Maya Angelou

v. Destruction is inevitable
In Russia-Ukraine crisis, world is facing food and energy crisis.
In case of Taiwan crisis, world will be facing technological crisis. No electronic device can work without semiconductor chip.

63% of semiconductor manufacturing is done in Taiwan

III. DIFFERENCES BETWEEN TAIWAN AND UKRAINE CRISIS

Differences between both Crisis

→ Unlike Ukraine, Taiwan will not be one-on-one war

→ Security Concerns for US

→ Difference in Terrain of both disputes

i. Unlike Ukraine, Taiwan will not be one-on-one war

Ukraine is alone in the war because there is no "Ukraine Relations Act".

In case of Taiwan, due to TRA, Taiwan will not be alone. It will atleast be China vs. Taiwan and US.

> US has Signed TRA (Taiwan Relations Act) with Taiwan.

ii. Security Concerns for US

In case of Ukraine, there is no direct threat of Security to US. There is NATO between US and Russia.

Russia	NATO	US
China	Taiwan	US

On the other hand, Taiwan is the only geopolitical barrier between US and China. It poses a direct security threat to us.

iii- Difference in Terrain of both disputes

Ukraine is flat Terrain with tractors and fields. That is why it is also known as bread basket of Europe.

On the other hand, Taiwan is opposite. It has cities between mountains. It is also 160 km away from mainland China.

> * Ukraine → Plainfield with tractors and fields.
>
> * Taiwan → Mountains on all 4 sides.
> → 160 km away from mainland China

IV: CONCLUSION

Both disputes carry dangerous outputs. There are some similarities and some differences in both conflicts. However, war is not a solution for anything.
